

That Green Stuff

MUSCLE RELIEF GEL

That Green Stuff (3 oz.) Muscle Relief Gel Tube

KEY POINTS:

- ▶ A muscle relief gel that contains natural anti-inflammatory compounds derived from specially selected and processed Medicago sativa (aka: alfalfa)
- ▶ Reduces inflammation when applied to joints, stiff or sore muscles, and tired or aching feet or hands
- ▶ Reduces localized swelling such as from joint replacement surgery which may substantially reduce post-surgery recovery time
- ▶ Duration of relief varies, but may provide relief of arthritic joint discomfort for up to 8 hours
- ▶ Relief is realized within 30 minutes
- ▶ Regular daily application of the gel results in more consistent and longer-lasting relief rather than sporadic gel application during flair-ups
- ▶ Gel is a topical formulation for external use only
- ▶ Gel has no known adverse reactions with other over-the-counter or prescription medications
- ▶ Gel formulation is supplemented with natural antimicrobial compounds designed to prevent infection from skin bacteria and other microorganisms
- ▶ Ingredients are all classified by the US FDA as GRAS or Generally Regarded as Safe
